

2022 COMMUNITY VILLAGE FAQ

ABOUT COMMUNITY VILLAGE

The Maha Community Village is returning after a 2-year hiatus due to the pandemic. We are being thoughtful in our return and reducing the number of participants by half in order to provide a safe environment while still engaging with attendees.

The Community Village at Maha has merged fun and learning together since 2012. The 2022 Community Village is seeking 501(c)(3) nonprofits – specifically those that provide services related to personal well being, directly or indirectly – to join with us in making a difference. Your organization is invited to concept an activity that reflects who you are and what you bring to the community, to be carried out during these days of creativity and discovery. For organizations that do not work in areas related to personal wellness: don't worry, you can absolutely still apply. We only ask that you agree to stand with Maha to encourage conversation around the importance of self-care, well being, and access to important resources.

Please review the Community Village FAQ section before applying and get in touch at community@mahafestival.com with any additional questions.

APPLICATION AND ELIGIBILITY

Who is eligible to apply?

Any local 501(c)(3) nonprofit organization willing to bring a creative activity to Maha is eligible to apply.

My nonprofit isn't located in the Omaha area — can we still apply?

If your work positively affects the community here, but you're located elsewhere, you can still apply, but please note the preference is to have local organizations on-site. This exception is made on a case-by-case basis.

Our organization doesn't work in areas related to personal wellness. Can we still participate in Community Village?

Yes! All local 501(c)(3) nonprofits that apply will be considered.

How does Maha choose organizations to participate in the Community Village?

Our internal committee reviews all applications and selects organizations based on available space and evaluation of how the proposed activity will enhance the festival experience. Organizations will be notified of their approval to participate by March 31.

ACTIVITIES

What kinds of activities work best at Maha?

The more creative, the better! We've had many activities over the years. Some of the fan favorites have been art projects, games, trivia, demonstrations, and educational activities, just to name a few. Please be mindful of the waste created by your activity and strive to use products that can be recycled or composted at our zero-waste stations.

What kinds of activities do not work well at the festival?

Activities that require small group participation, play music (without headphones), take a lot of time for an individual to complete, or require significant one-on-one conversation may not work well in a music festival environment.

Are there any activities that are not allowed in Community Village?

Per Stinson Park's regulations, we do not allow live animals, dunk tanks (or any activity that uses a significant amount of water), or the use of open flame or fire. Please get in touch if you're unsure about whether your activity would be permitted.

We also require that there are no sales of merchandise in your tent and that activities and displays are "G-rated", as many children enjoy the Community Village with their families.

PARTICIPATION AND LOGISTICS

When and where does the Community Village take place?

Maha Festival is at Stinson Park in Aksarben Village. The gates are open to attendees Friday, July 29 at 5 p.m. and Saturday, July 30, 2022 at 2 p.m. Community Village closes both days at dusk, around 8 p.m..

Does my organization need to participate in both days of the festival?

Yes.

How many free tickets do we get?

To make entry and re-entry easier for Community Village, we will provide wristbands and tickets with unlimited re-entry for each booth worker. Each booth/organization will receive up to six 2-day wristbands. We will schedule a date in July to pre-distribute your wristbands.

When can we setup and tear down?

Set up: We will get in touch with exact times closer to the event, but organizations participating in both festival days will be able to load in at noon on Friday, July 29. Organizations participating in Saturday only can load in beginning at noon that day.

Tear down: If you are participating in both days, you may leave your booth intact overnight from Friday to Saturday and there will be security guards on the festival grounds. After Community Village closes on Saturday, Maha staff will determine when it's safe to load out based on festival volume, and notify everyone. All items must be removed from the park no later than 2 a.m..

Where do we park when we arrive?

Free parking is available in any one of Aksarben Village's four parking garages.

How much space do we get?

Each organization will have a 10'x10' tent.

What is provided in the tent?

Maha will place one 8' table and 4 chairs for each organization unless coordinated otherwise.

Our activity requires extra green space, can we have it?

There is space in front of all Community Village tents that can be used to extend your activity. Please coordinate with us in advance if you plan to do this, and be mindful of the organizations you are sharing space with.

Can we bring in a cooler for volunteer food and drink?

Yes. Coolers for food and non-alcoholic beverages only need to be on-site PRIOR to gates opening to the public, so please plan your setup time accordingly. This is an exception; general attendees are not allowed to bring in food and drink.

Free water refills will be on-site.

Will we have electricity available for our tent?

Yes. If you need electricity, let us know ASAP so we can place you in one of the tents near a power source. Please be prepared with your own long extension cords to connect to power sources, as we will not provide those.

Can we hang items/banners in/on our tent?

Yes. Please bring your own zip tie fasteners, tape, rope, etc. Please coordinate with your tent mates to be sure there is room for everyone's items.

Can we stake anything in the ground?

No. This is strictly prohibited by the Stinson Park property management due to the underground sprinkler system. There are NO exceptions to this rule. Please devise alternative methods for securing or supporting items for your activity.

Will there be a water source nearby?

Yes. Maha will have water stations for refilling water bottles for drinking. Please let Maha staff know if you will require water for your activity and someone will direct you to a water source.
